

LOUIS FOX.

Born Jan. 18, '28. Died Feb. 16, '04.

Tuesday morning, February 16th, after an illness of about two weeks, Louis Fox, Sr., passed from this life to eternal rest. He was a good man, kind in his home, and respected and liked by all who knew him.

He was born January 18, 1828, at Wunderthausen, Wittgenstein, Prussia, immigrating to this country in 1854, and living two years in New Jersey. From there he went to California, where he remained during the following fifteen years. Coming to this place from California, in 1871, he was married the following year, on September 2nd, to Katherine Schneider. She died in 1876, leaving one son, George.

He was married again December 3, 1879, to Wilholmina Homrighausen, and three sons, namely, Louis, Henry and Arnold, came by this marriage. He is survived by his wife, four sons and sister, Mrs. Katharine Riedesel.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Link at the German Reformed church this morning at 11 o'clock, followed by interment in the High German cemetery.
