Notes for Anna Elisabeth Homrighausen:

Born in the house known variously as Bergmanns and Gabels. Family records say she was born in 1872, but the church records in Germany say 1873. Like many, she was called by her middle name.

Came to America on the ship "Lahn" out of Bremen, landing in the port of New York on September 14, 1893. She was in the company of a cousin, Ludwig Heinrich Riedesel, and the latter's son Christian Willi Riedesel of Wunderthausen. Father and son settled in Rochester as did Elisabeth for a while. However, she moved on to Iowa where many other relatives lived.
