

Descendants of Johann Franz Knoche

Generation 1

1. JOHANN FRANZ¹ KNOCHE was born on November 08, 1796 in Wunderthausen. He died on October 10, 1865 in Jackson, Missouri. He married Elisabeth Gertraud Strackbein, daughter of Johann Tobias Strackbein and Elisabeth Gertraud Homrighausen, on December 23, 1821 in Wunderthausen. She was born on October 12, 1804 in Wunderthausen. She died on June 09, 1891 in Jackson, Missouri.

Notes for Johann Franz Knoche:

Born in Seilers Haus, Wunderthausen, became tenant in Auf der Laye, but then went with his family to America. They had two daughters named Elisabeth Amalia, one born in 1822, one in 1826. One would assume that the first daughter died as an infant, but there is no death record in Wunderthausen. Most of the living family--save for Henry and Louis--were aboard the "Carl" when it arrived in New Orleans from Bremen on October 13, 1858.

The following is from "Vital Historical Records of Jackson County, Missouri 1826-1876" published in 1934 by the Kansas City Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Kansas City, Missouri:

THE KNOCHE BURYING GROUND (Washington Township)

"The head of this family who came to America and to Jackson County, Missouri, a few years prior to the Civil War, was Johannes Franz KNOCHE, who with his wife, Elizabeth STROCHBINE KNOCHE, were born, reared and married in Prussia. Franz (Frank) KNOCHE was a soldier in the Prussian army before coming to America. In sections 28 and 29 in Washington Township the KNOCHE family purchased farm land in the locality known today as 140th and Holmes.

On this farm was a Family Burying Ground. This land was in the path of the fast-growing demand for smaller acreage and this old KNOCHE farm was sold. About the year 1916 "Jim" KNOCHE, a descendant of the immigrant ancestor, helped to remove all of the bodies which had been interred there, to the cemetery at Belton, Cass County, Missouri.

The following inscriptions were copied from the stones of members of this Jackson County family, which are found on the lot at the cemetery in Belton, Missouri:

Generation 2

2. ELISABETH AMALIA² KNOCHE (Johann Franz¹) was born on November 16, 1822 in Wunderthausen. She died on October 21, 1857. She married Georg Ludwig Scheerer, son of

Anna Elisabeth Scheerer, on May 06, 1853 in Wunderthausen. He was born on November 30, 1827 in Wunderthausen. He died on January 04, 1903.

Notes for Elisabeth Amalia Knoche:
Born in the house Auf der Leye.

Notes for Georg Ludwig Scheerer:
Established "Dicke" house in the 1850s.

Georg Ludwig Scheerer and Elisabeth Amalia Knoche had the following children:

- i. FLORENTINE³ SCHEERER was born on August 09, 1853 in Wunderthausen.
- ii. ELISABETH SCHEERER was born on August 03, 1855 in Wunderthausen.

Notes for Elisabeth Scheerer:
Born in Dicke house in Wunderthausen. Went to New York aboard the Main out of Bremen, landing on May 13, 1871.

3. ELISABETH AMALIA² KNOCHE (Johann Franz¹) was born on January 01, 1826 in Wunderthausen. She died on April 17, 1880 in Kansas City, Jackson, Missouri. She married Georg Gabriel Riedesel, son of Ludwig Riedesel and Maria Gertraud Dreisbach, on February 06, 1853 in Wunderthausen. He was born on September 20, 1809 in Wunderthausen. He died before 1880 in Clay County, Kansas.

Notes for Elisabeth Amalia Knoche:
Born in the house "Auf der Leye" (later Kellers) in Wunderthausen.

Whether it was she or her younger sister Elisabeth Florentine (b. 1831) who married Georg Gabriel (Ludwig) Riedesel is not clear. Researchers in Germany have interpreted the records to say that it was Elisabeth Florentine. However, the marriage record just says "Elisabeth Knoche" so it could be either one. The ship's list in 1867 gives her age as 42 (so born about 1825 and fitting the older sister). The 1870 Census gives her age as 44, matching the older sister's birth year of 1826. Only in 1880 did the widow give her age as 49 (an implied birth year of 1831). It is my judgment that Elisabeth Amalia (b. 1826) was the bride.

Notes for Georg Gabriel Riedesel:

Known as Ludwig. Born in the house "Ludwigs unter der Leye" but established the house in Wunderthausen known as Schreiners/Großeludwigs. His two wives had the same birth names, but the first was apparently known as Maria and the second as Amalia. Ludwig came to America with his second wife and at least three children on the ship Argonaut out of Bremen. It arrived at New York on November 9, 1867. We have newspaper advertisements that he placed in Wittgenstein in the summer of 1867 putting the house, property and harvest up for sale. He owned less than three acres of cropland and a couple pieces of pasture land.

The obituary of his son, Louis D. (from his first marriage), alludes to two half-sisters. One was Catherine and the other was probably the girl identified as "Dina" on the ship's manifest. The latter was--I believe--a common nickname for "Christine." Yet I find no record of her in the Wunderthausen records.

A recent history from Wunderthausen lists a death date in May 1884. However, I find no trace of Ludwig in the 1880 Census but his supposedly widowed wife is living with their son, Phillip.

Georg Gabriel Riedesel and Elisabeth Amalia Knoche had the following children:

- i. DINA³ RIEDESEL was born about 1853.

Notes for Dina Riedesel:
The only record of her existence is a passenger list for the Argonaut out of Bremen carrying other family members; the ship docked in New York out of Bremen on November 9, 1867. She is not listed with them in the 1870 Census nor does any birth record in Wunderthausen look like hers. While she could already have been married by 1870, she may also have died by then. Her half-brother Louis D.'s obituary alludes to two half-sisters in 1929.

It is not out of the question that the young woman named as Dina Riedesel in the ship's 1867 record was in fact not a Riedesel at all but used the name to emigrate with another family.

Dina was normally a nickname for Christine.

- ii. JOHANNES RIEDESEL was born on January 19, 1857 in Wunderthausen. He died on October 06, 1859 in Wunderthausen.
- iii. CATHERINE RIEDESEL was born on January 24, 1859.

Notes for Catherine Riedesel:

I have no record of her coming to America or her staying in Germany.

- 10. iv. PHILIPP JOHN RIEDESEL was born on December 22, 1860 in Wunderthausen. He died on December 13, 1941 in Moundville, Vernon, Missouri (Griffith Cemetery, Wyandotte County, Kansas). He married Augusta Mary Hahner, daughter of August Hahner and Caroline Frances Tertling, on August 07, 1881 in Jackson, Missouri. She was born on December 14, 1862 in Kansas City, Clay, Missouri. She died on May 14, 1940 in Moundville, Vernon, Missouri (Griffith Cemetery, Wyandotte County, Kansas).
4. JOHANNES² KNOCHE (Johann Franz¹) was born on September 07, 1828 in Wunderthausen. He died on October 29, 1915 in Jackson County, Missouri. He married Anna Elisabeth Homrighausen, daughter of Johann Georg Wetter and Catherine Elisabeth Homrighausen, on January 17, 1866 in Missouri. She was born on January 17, 1846 in Wunderthausen. She died on October 24, 1919 in Jackson County, Missouri.

He was married in this county January 17, 1866, to Annie E. HOMRECHHOUSE. They have six children: Emily, John F., John R., Annie, Albert, and Nellie."

He was born on September 30, 1875 in Johnson County, Kansas, United States of America. He died on July 15, 1967 in Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri, United States of America.
5. ELISABETH FLORENTINE² KNOCHE (Johann Franz¹) was born on September 22, 1831 in Wunderthausen. She died on October 02, 1861 in Jackson County, Missouri. She married Johann Philipp Knoche, son of Johannes Knoche and Elisabeth Amalia Homrighausen, on December 16, 1858 in Missouri. He was born on April 10, 1813 in Wunderthausen. He died on August 29, 1888 in Missouri.

Notes for Elisabeth Florentine Knoche:

Born in the house 'Auf der Leye' (later Kellers) in Wunderthausen. Arrived October 20, 1854 in New Orleans on the ship "Auguste" out of Bremen.

Notes for Johann Philipp Knoche:

He was born in Beitzels Haus in Wunderthausen and came to Baltimore on the ship "Palmer" arriving on July 1, 1834.

According to a petition filed in 1840, Knoche first came to the U.S. in 1834, lived in Baltimore, and was naturalized March 9, 1840. He returned to Wittgenstein in 1840 to assist his father in coming to America, but was informed by the Prussian authorities that he was obliged to military service insofar as he had left Germany originally without permission. Through a lawyer, he asked the American government if he was not protected as an American citizen? The reply from an official named Henry Wheaton was that they could not help him. "Having returned to the country of your birth, your native domicile and national character revert (so long as you remain in the Prussian dominions), and you are bound in all respects to obey the laws exactly as if you had never emigrated." This would not have been the only case of its type, but international law on citizenship became clearer eventually. U.S. law then and now defines citizenship on the basis of where one was born; this was the exception at the time. More common historically, citizenship was defined by "blood": one inherited the nationality of one's father.

Despite this legal setback, the Knoche family including Johann Philipp did come to America. He and two brothers came to the US on the ship Everhard out of Bremen, landing in Baltimore on May 25, 1841. He lived in the Kaw Township, Jackson County, Missouri, and died there. By the standards of the time he became quite wealthy. The 1860 census included estimates of the value of each household head's land (if any) and personal estate. John's numbers were $14,300 and $6,000 respectively. This would place him in the top 20% or so in his township. A plat map from 1877 shows him in possession of almost a section (640) acres of land bordered by the Missouri River

From Biographical Sketches of Jackson County

The Doctor's [that is, the son John Phillip] parents were John P. and Florendina Knoche, and their family numbered only 2 children, 1 of whom died in infancy. The father was a farmer by occupation, and on emigrating to the new world took up his residence in Baltimore, in 1834, being employed there in John Wetter's distillery for 6 years. In 1839 he returned to Germany, and on again coming to the United States was accompanied by 3 brothers. They settled in Jackson county, Missouri, near Kansas City, in 1840. It was then known as West Landing. There were not near them a half-dozen houses; there was a grocery, etc. The country was wild and sparsely settled. He intended to establish a distillery, and had the building erected and a part of the machinery in when the flood of 1844 swept all away. John P. Knoche then removed to Santa Fe, Missouri, where he purchased and entered a large tract of land, engaging there in raising cattle for the Santa Fe traders. In this way he accumulated considerable wealth, but after a time disease broke out among the cattle in this section of the country, and he lost nearly all his stock, while his house and barns were destroyed by fire. Thus misfortune seemed to fall thick and fast around him. He was a man of much purpose, however, and returned to his farm in Jackson county, near Kansas City, but retained the ownership of his farm near Santa Fe, and operated both until after the war broke out. At that time he joined the home guards. His land lay between the territory occupied by Jennison's Kansas "Redlegs" and Price's raiders, who stole all his corn, hogs and hay. His wife was also frightened to death in 1861 by some of Jennison's troops! She was a member of the Lutheran church, a faithful helpmeet to her husband and a loving mother. In 1863 Mr. Knoche was again married, his second union being with Annie E. Knoche, a sister of his first wife. They had 9 children - 4 sons and 5 daughters, of whom the following-named are yet living: John H., Louis H., Joseph and Rosa A. The father died August 29, 1887, in his 75th year, but his 2nd wife is still living, on the old homestead.

Johann Philipp Knoche and Elisabeth Florentine Knoche had the following children:

- i. JOSEPH³ KNOCHE was born about 1856 in Missouri. He died before 1870.

Notes for Joseph Knoche:

Almost certainly died before his father.

- ii. JOHN PHILLIP KNOCHE was born on July 25, 1859 in Missouri. He died in December 1939 in Jackson County, Missouri. He married Elizabeth Turner on May 11, 1905 in Jackson, Missouri. She was born in 1860 in Hannibal, Ralls County, Missouri. She died on June 07, 1952 in Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri.

Notes for John Phillip Knoche:

As of the 1880 Census when he was 20 and living with his parents, his occupation was that of a Doctor.

6. LUDWIG² KNOCHE (Johann Franz¹) was born on December 09, 1834 in Wunderthausen. He died on April 16, 1917 in Jackson, Missouri. He married Anna Elisabeth Knoche, daughter of Johannes Knoche and Elisabeth Magdalena Mörchen, on March 27, 1863. She was born on April 30, 1843 in Wunderthausen. She died on December 08, 1909 in Jackson, Missouri.

Notes for Ludwig Knoche:

Born in the house 'Auf der Leye' (later Kellers) in Wunderthausen. Naturalized in 1858.

"Louis KNOCHE, farmer, section 29, post-office Belton, is a native of Prussia, and was born December 9, 1834, and was there reared and educated. In the spring of 1854 he came to America, landing in New Orleans, and from there came to Jackson County, where he now owns ninety acres, with a good residence. He was married in this county, March 27, 1863, to Katie KNOCHE. They have six children: Katie, Henry, Louis, George, James and Omolaci." [sic]

Source: "The History of Jackson County, Missouri" published in 1881. There was a Ludwig Knoche of about the right age who landed in New Orleans on the ship Carl in 1859 but I doubt this was the same man.

8. ANNA ELISABETH² KNOCHE (Johann Franz¹) was born on December 04, 1842 in Wunderhausen. She died on September 12, 1931 in Kansas City, Wyandotte, Kansas (Elmwood Cemetery, Jackson County). She married (1) JOHANN PHILIPP KNOCHE, son of Johannes Knoche and Elisabeth Amalia Homrighausen, in 1863 in Missouri. He was born on April 10, 1813 in Wunderhausen. He died on August 29, 1888 in Missouri. She married (2) LOUIS TIPPE in 1890 in Missouri. He was born on July 22, 1862 in Germany. He died on July 14, 1924 in Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri, United States of America.

Notes for Anna Elisabeth Knoche:

Born in the house 'Auf der Leye' (later Kellers) in Wunderhausen. She came to America on the ship 'Carl' landing in New Orleans out of Bremen on October 13, 1858. She had additional children we do not know of. Some records shown a Daniel (John) as a son but this cannot be correct.

Notes for Johann Philipp Knoche:

He was born in Beitzels Haus in Wunderhausen and came to Baltimore on the ship "Palmer" arriving on July 1, 1834.

According to a petition filed in 1840, Knoche first came to the U.S. in 1834, lived in Baltimore, and was naturalized March 9, 1840. He returned to Wittgenstein in 1840 to assist his father in coming to America, but was informed by the Prussian authorities that he was obliged to military service insofar as he had left Germany originally without permission. Through a lawyer, he asked the American government if he was not protected as an American citizen? The reply from an official named Henry Wheaton was that they could not help him. "Having returned to the country of your birth, your native domicile and national character revert (so long as you remain in the Prussian dominions), and you are bound in all respects to obey the laws exactly as if you had never emigrated." This would not have been the only case of its type, but international law on citizenship became clearer eventually. U.S. law then and now defines citizenship on the basis of where one was born; this was the exception at the time. More common historically, citizenship was defined by "blood": one inherited the nationality of one's father.

Despite this legal setback, the Knoche family including Johann Philipp did come to America. He and two brothers came to the US on the ship Everhard out of Bremen, landing in Baltimore on May 25, 1841. He lived in the Kaw Township, Jackson County, Missouri, and died there. By the standards of the time he became quite wealthy. The 1860 census included estimates of the value of each household head's land (if any) and personal estate. John's numbers were $14,300 and $6,000 respectively. This would place him in the top 20% or so in his township. A plat map from 1877 shows him in possession of almost a section (640) acres of land bordered by the Missouri River their family numbered only 2 children, 1 of whom died in infancy. The father was a farmer by occupation, and on emigrating to the new world took up his residence in Baltimore, in 1834, being employed there in John Wetter's distillery for 6 years. In 1839 he returned to Germany, and on again coming to the United States was accompanied by 3 brothers. They settled in Jackson county, Missouri, near Kansas City, in 1840. It was then known as West Landing. There were not near them a half-dozen houses; there was a grocery, etc. The country was wild and sparsely settled. He intended to establish a distillery, and had the building erected and a part of the machinery in when the flood of 1844 swept all away. John P. Knoche then removed to Santa Fe, Missouri, where he purchased and entered a large tract of land, engaging there in raising cattle for the Santa Fe traders. In this way he accumulated considerable wealth, but after a time disease broke out among the cattle in this section of the country, and he lost nearly all his stock, while his house and barns were destroyed by fire. Thus misfortune seemed to fall thick and fast around him. He was a man of much purpose, however, and returned to his farm in Jackson county, near Kansas City, but retained the ownership of his farm near Santa Fe, and operated both until after the war broke out. At that time he joined the home guards. His land lay between the territory occupied by Jennison's Kansas "Redlegs" and Price's raiders, who stole all his corn, hogs and hay. His wife was also frightened to death in 1861 by some of Jennison's troops! She was a member of the Lutheran church, a faithful helpmeet to her husband and a loving mother. In 1863 Mr. Knoche was again married, his second union being with Annie E. Knoche, a sister of his first wife. They had 9 children - 4 sons and 5 daughters, of whom the following-named are yet living: John H., Louis H., Joseph and Rosa A. The father died August 29, 1887, in his 75th year, but his 2nd wife is still living, on the old homestead.

Johann Philipp Knoche and Anna Elisabeth Knoche had the following children:

22. i. JOHN HENRY³ KNOCHE was born on April 25, 1865 in Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri, United States of America. Generation 2 (cont.)

Notes for Georg Ludwig Knoche:

Born in the house 'Auf der Leye' (later Kellers) in Wunderthausen. Came to America on the ship 'Carl' landing in New Orleans out of Bremen on October 13, 1858. Lived near the town of Belton in Jackson County, MO. Owned 163 acres by 1881. The cause of death was being hit by a train near the town of Crescent. An unflattering obituary notes that he was once a prosperous farmer at Martin City but had lost all his money speculating in real estate. He was described as being divorced by then.

"George KNOCHE, farmer, section 28, post-office Belton, is a native of Prussia, born May 19, 1850, and when seven years of age came with his parents to America, landing in New Orleans. From there he came to Jackson County, and after being reared and educated, commenced farming. He now owns 163 acres of well improved land, and his residence is nearly surrounded by shade trees. He was married September 22, 1875, to Miss Elsinie STURGINN, of North Carolina. They have four children: Rose D., Dora E., Edward E., and Lee G."

Georg Ludwig Knoche and Cornelia Jane Elsinia Sturjin had the following children:

- i. ROSA DELLA³ KNOCHE was born on July 14, 1876 in Missouri. She died on February 22, 1955 in Kansas City, Clay, Missouri. She married Edward Charles Himburg on February 11, 1902.
- ii. DORA E. KNOCHE was born in July 1877 in Missouri. She died on April 26, 1915 in Oklahoma City, Canadian, Oklahoma. She married John B. Larkin on January 27, 1897.
- iii. EDWARD ELIJAH KNOCHE was born on January 17, 1879 in Missouri. He died in November 1969 in Kansas City, Clay, Missouri. He married Katie E. Bart on May 10, 1905.

Generation 3

10. PHILIPP JOHN³ RIEDESEL (Elisabeth Amalia² Knoche, Johann Franz¹ Knoche) was born on December 22, 1860 in Wunderthausen. He died on December 13, 1941 in Moundville, Vernon, Missouri (Griffith Cemetery, Wyandotte County, Kansas). He married Augusta Mary Hahner, daughter of August Hahner and Caroline Frances Tertling, on August 07, 1881 in Jackson, Missouri. She was born on December 14, 1862 in Kansas City, Clay, Missouri. She died on May 14, 1940 in Moundville, Vernon, Missouri (Griffith Cemetery, Wyandotte County, Kansas).

Notes for Philipp John Riedesel:

Born in the house Schreiners/Großeludwigs in Wunderthausen. Baptised as Philipp but known as Phillip John (or James) in this country. Came to the U.S. with his parents on the ship Argonaut out of Bremen. It arrived in New York on November 9, 1867. As an adult he lived in the Kansas City, Kansas area; in 1930 they lived in the Center township of Vernon County, Missouri. Several censuses list his place of birth as Iowa or Missouri, which is simply false. It does suggest the possibility that his parents lived for a while around Wheatland. In the same Census, his son Phillip reported his father's birthplace as Missouri! His grave marker says he died in 1940 but state records say 1941.

I find a 19-year old "John P Redzel" living with his widowed mother Elizabeth at Quindaro, Wyandotte County (Kansas City), Kansas in the 1880 Census.

Notes for Augusta Mary Hahner:

Records suggest different versions of her family name: Hainer, Hahner, Höhner, Haner. Augusta bore seven children but we have the names of only six. Her birth year is variously given as 1861 or 1862. I trust the 1900 Census which explicitly gives it as 1862.

Philipp John Riedesel and Augusta Mary Hahner had the following children:

Notes for Arthur D Malott:

He had at least five children with a previous wife before marrying Elizabeth Riedesel. The 1910 Census lists this blended family.

- ii. NICHOLAS AUGUST RIEDESEL was born on January 24, 1884 in Kansas City, Wyandotte, Kansas. He died on May 23, 1919 in Kansas City, Wyandotte, Kansas (Bethel Cemetery, Kansas). She was born on September 14, 1895 in Wyandotte, Wyandotte, Kansas. She died on August 03, 1974 in Nevada, Vernon, Missouri (Moore Cemetery, Vernon County).

Notes for Phillip M Riedesel:

Moved to Polk County, Missouri, in 1937. As of 1930 he was a pipe fitter and living in the Nevada township of Vernon County, Missouri. His gravestone gives a birth year of 1890, but his draft records say 1891. As of 1950 he was farming in Polk County, Missouri.

- v. MARGARET RIEDESEL was born on February 20, 1896 in Missouri. She died in June 1990 (Griffith Cemetery, Wyandotte County, Kansas). She married JOHN W. BAILEY. He died before 1930.

She was widowed by 1930.

- vi. HARRY LEE RIEDESEL was born on May 23, 1900 in Kansas City, Wyandotte, Kansas. He died on July 28, 1951 in Kansas City, Wyandotte, Kansas (Griffith Cemetery, Kansas City).
