Matthias Repp was born in 1792, in Wezlar, Prussia. He married Ernestina Bremer, who was born June 6, 1798. They with their five children, lived in the town of Astler, Germany. Matthias was a carpenter and secured the contract for building a bridge across the River Rhine at Koln, Germany. He was never fully paid for this work, $1,600 being due him at the time of his emigration to the United States of America in September, 1833. The family landed at Baltimore, Md., and lived there until an epidemic of ague forced them to leave. They moved to Oxford, N. J. A certificate of naturalization was granted to Matthias Repp, Dec. 13, 1837, at Belvidere, N. J., county seat of Warren County. He died Aug. 18, 1860.
