

Descendants of Johann Georg Strackbein

Generation 1

1. JOHANN GEORG¹ STRACKBEIN was born on May 28, 1869 in Wunderthausen. He died in August 1936 in Woodbury, Iowa. He married Ida Wilhelmine Burow, daughter of Carl L. Burow and Pauline Augusta Kruggel, on February 18, 1903. She was born on November 07, 1882 in Pomerania [now Polish]. She died on May 14, 1962 in Woodbury, Iowa.

Notes for Johann Georg Strackbein:

Born in Seilers Haus, Wunderthausen. Came to the U.S. in 1893 or 1894. He settled at Midway, Woodbury County, Iowa. He was called "Green George" to distinguish him from Big George Strackbein and Little George Strackbein. Lived in the Morgan township where he presumably died. Midway Cemetery is also called St. Paul's.

Notes for Ida Wilhelmine Burow:

She came to the U.S. with her parents in 1893 aboard the SS Steinhöft out of Hamburg. The ship arrived in Baltimore on September 12, 1893. The family's previous residence is given in the German record as Dubberzin, Pommern (Pomerania). This eastern province is now part of Poland, and the town is called Dobrzecino.

I have seen family records naming Zell-Cochem, which lie either side of the Mosel river in western Germany, but this makes no sense. The Burow name was common in Pomerania.

Notes for William Friedrich Strackbein:
