Notes for Johann Georg Strackbein:

Born in Hutheschäferse Haus in Wunderthausen. Known as George. He arrived in New York on the ship "Donau" out of Bremen in New York on November 25, 1871 with other emigrants from Wunderthausen whom we know remained in New Jersey.

His obituary says that he lived for about a year with his brother, Louis, at Wheatland before moving on to St. Louis and much later Milwaukee where he worked as a mason. Late in life he came back to Wheatland and lived with relatives. He never married.
