

Descendants of Georg Gabriel Wetter

Generation 1

1. GEORG GABRIEL¹ WETTER was born on August 27, 1793 in Wunderthausen. He died on January 22, 1864 in Sherrill, Dubuque, Iowa. He married Elisabeth Florentine Schneider, daughter of Georg Ludwig Schneider and Elisabeth Gertraud Riedesel, on November 30, 1828 in Wunderthausen. She was born on March 16, 1805 in Wunderthausen. She died on July 04, 1884 in Glidden, Carroll, Iowa.

Notes for Georg Gabriel Wetter:

Born at Petersgrund (a single house near but not in Wunderthausen). What had been a single property was divided between Gabriel and his brother, Georg Ludwig. In 1833 Gabriel and his family went to America (Baltimore) where one of his brothers was supposedly established as a merchant. If true, this was Gg. Hermann (b.1798). By the end of 1833 the family was back in Germany, petitioning the authorities for the right to resume their residence in Wittgenstein. Fortuitously, their possessions were still in the care of Schneider relatives. Family accounts have said that they first went to America in 1831 but archives in Germany include their petition in March 1833 to be allowed to leave.

Wunderthausen church records note that their daughter, Amalia, was born onboard the return ship. In 1845, he sold his interests in the property at Petersgrund to the "Prince" of Sayn-Wittgenstein in Berleburg. They came to the U.S. on the ship Minna out of Bremen, landing in New York on October 4, 1845 and were in Sherrill, Iowa, by 1847. Mrs. Hobbs reported that they came to New Orleans and then up the Mississippi. However, we have a passenger list from New York that identifies them beyond doubt. Maybe they took another boat to New Orleans rather than traveling overland.

Mrs. Hobbs says that he initially purchased 160 acres at $1.25 per acre. He later bought an adjoining 40 acres.

Notes for Elisabeth Florentine Schneider:

Born in Altehäusers Haus in Wunderthausen though lived with her husband at Petersgrund. The family came briefly to America in 1833 but went back to Wunderthausen, returning to stay in 1845. The latter trip was on the ship Minna out of Bremen, landing in New York on October 4, 1845.

Notes for Johann Georg Wetter:

Known as George, or John George. Born at Petersgrund near Wunderthausen, first came to the U. S. with his parents briefly in 1833 before returning to Wunderthausen. In 1845, the family came back to the U.S. We used to think they debarked in New Orleans but we now have record of them traveling on the ship Minna which landed in New York on October 4, 1845. According to Emma Wetter Hobbs, they settled near Sherrill, Iowa around 1847 (long known as Sherills Mound). This is where George and Sophia met and most of the large Wetter family remained. George had 80 acres of timberland at Sherrill.

George and his family moved to a farm in Sections 29 and 32 of the Liberty Township of Clinton County in 1861. As far as I know, no other Wetter family members came to the Wheatland area.

In November 1875 the land was sold to David and John Shoemaker, nephews of the second wife of L. Henry Riedesel (viz. Elisabeth Schumacher). George, Sophia and their children moved on to Glidden, Iowa in 1876 and spent the rest of their days there.

His daughter by Catherine Homrighausen back in Wunderthausen lived to be an adult, and came to America as well. What, if any, contact there was between them or knowledge within the Wheatland diaspora there was, we just don't know.

Riedesel, son of Johann Ludwig Riedesel and Catherine Schneider, on February 16, 1879 in Carroll County, Iowa. He was born on August 23, 1850 in Galion, Crawford, Ohio. He died on May 14, 1922 in Glidden, Carroll, Iowa (Merle Hay (West Lawn) Cemetery, Glidden).

Notes for Sophia Katherine Wetter:

Like her husband, Sophia located to the Wheatland area as a child. Family stories tell that she lived part of her childhood with her aunt and uncle Fiock. The latter had no children and it would not have been uncommon to "borrow" a young relative to help with the work of keeping house and farming. However, Sophia was enumerated in her parents' household in the 1870 Census. Her parents (and the aged Fiocks) moved to Glidden too.

Notes for Louis A. Riedesel:

Christened Ludwig but known to us as Louis A. I am 99% certain that the "A." was only an initial that he took on to distinguish himself from other Louis/Ludwig Riedesels. There is no chance his echt-Deutsch parents gave him the middle name of "Arnold" or "Arthur" as a few other researchers have guessed.

Born in Crawford County, Ohio, but moved with his family to Wheatland in 1855. At the time of his marriage in 1879, he is said to have accumulated $200 and a team of mules, so was ready to begin farming on his own. His parents and in-laws moved to the Glidden area where he farmed. He eventually bought 140 acres north of town, and worked it until 1909 when son Ralph took over. Louis, Sophia and the younger children moved into town in October 1909 (to a house his brother, John C., had owned).

If Louis spoke much English, it was only after the children learned it in school. He died of a stroke. The few stories that have come down to us suggest he was a strict, no-nonsense person. Yet several of the children had a streak of good humor, so I believe he had another side as well.

Louis A. Riedesel and Sophia Katherine Wetter had the following children:

- i. ARNOLD A.⁴ RIEDESEL was born on January 06, 1880 in Glidden, Carroll, Iowa. He died on June 14, 1951 in Windom, Cottonwood, Minnesota (Windom). He married Lydia Fausch, daughter of Johann Christian Fausch and Mary Sherer, in Slater, Iowa. She was born on August 25, 1883 in Des Moines, Polk, Iowa. She died on August 15, 1968 in Cass, Minnesota.

Notes for Arnold A. Riedesel:

Arnold was a farmer but also engaged in a seed and nursery business. In 1910 he had his own farm in Carroll County, Iowa but had settled in near Windom, Minnesota (Cottonwood County) by 1920. They may have lived around Veblen, South Dakota and Ames, Iowa if briefly. Emma Wetter Hobbs says that he helped introduce hybrid seed corn in southern Minnesota. At six feet, two inches he was by far the tallest member of the family. Arnold completed eight years of school. He reportedly learned English only upon attending school.

- ii. LILLIAN ROSELLE RIEDESEL was born on April 16, 1882 in Glidden, Carroll, Iowa. She died on December 22, 1961 in Benkelman, Dundy, Nebraska. She died on November 05, 1934 in Carroll County, Iowa (Merle Hay (West Lawn) Cemetery, Glidden).

Notes for Ralph Eugene Riedesel:

Ralph and Edith took over farming the homestead about the time of their marriage and when his parents retired into Glidden. He did not apparently have full title of the farm, though, until some time in the 1930s, probably when mother Sofia died. After the death of his wife, Ralph's mother moved back to the farm to help with the
